Meditation on Emptiness
By Jeffrey Hopkins

Source for Study.
In bringing this remarkable and complex philosophy to life, Jeffrey Hopkins describes the meditational practices by which emptiness can be realized and shows that, far from being merely abstract, these teachings can be vivid and utterly practical.

Praise & Reviews
"One of the great classics.... Few subsequent works can be said to equal it in profundity and accessibility." — Jose Ignacio Cabezón, University of California, Santa Barbara
"It brought for the first time a sophisticated account of Tibetan interpretations of Madhyamaka, which was an enormous resource for those interested in Buddhist philosophy." — Georges Dreyfus
"An important and invaluable work." — Tibet Journal
"Hopkins succeeds in bringing this remarkable and complex philosophy to life." — MLBD Newsletter
"An essential book for anyone interested in Tibetan Buddhism or Madhyamika philosophy...and an inexhaustible resource for the study of the Dharma and a major contribution to Buddhist studies." — Buddhist Studies Review
"This is an extremely practical book. Mr. Hopkins’ mind is so infused with Buddhist teachings that he readily translates arcane concepts into practical solutions for the myriad problems of daily existence." — The Beacon
"A rich, comprehensive treatment of emptiness in the Indo-Tibetan Buddhist tradition by the remarkable Western scholar and frequent English translator for His Holiness the Dalai Lama. This is still the standard text on the subject, twenty-five years after its initial publication." — Rev. Danny Fisher

Jeffrey Hopkins, Author
Jeffrey Hopkins is Professor of Tibetan Buddhist Studies at the University of Virginia where he has taught Tibetan Studies and Tibetan language since 1973. He received a B.A. magna cum laude from Harvard University in 1963, trained for five years at the Lamaist Buddhist Monastery of America (now the Tibetan Buddhist Learning Center) in New Jersey, and received a Ph.D. in Buddhist Studies from the University of Wisconsin in 1973. From 1979 to 1989 he served as His Holiness the Dalai Lama’s chief interpreter into English on lecture tours in the U.S., Canada, Southeast Asia, Great Britain, and Switzerland. He has published seventeen articles and more than twenty-five books, including Meditation on Emptiness. At the University of Virginia he founded programs in Buddhist Studies and Tibetan Studies and served as Director of the Center for South Asian Studies for twelve years.

Researched & Compiled by Gelong TENZIN OEDOK, Ph.D
(aka. Tỳ Kheo Thích Nguyên Thiện / Dao M. Le, Ph.D)